

Mint of the United States at Philadelphia,

February 8, 1886.

Sir,

Mr. Newlin offers us a pattern five-cent piece, which we do not possess. And is very rare. And a proof dollar of 1879. for one of our duplicate pattern dollars of 1879.

The exchange is fair and desirable. I would recommend it.

R. A. McClure
Curator,

Hon. Daniel M. Fox.

Superintendent,

Wm F
Laf

2409

RG104 E-1 Box 137 Jan-Feb 1886

Phila. Pa.
Feb 8/86.

R. A. McClure
Curator.

Recommends accepting
Mr Newlin's offer of a pattern set Piece & a Proof Dollar of 1879,
in ex. for a duplicate
Dollar of 1879.

NARA RG104, Entry 1, Box 137

[Abstract:] Recommends accepting Mr. Newlin's offer of a pattern 5ct piece...

Mint of the United States at Philadelphia,
February 8, 1886

Sir,

Mr. Newlin offers us a pattern five-cent piece, which we do not possess, and is very rare. And a proof dollar of 1879, for one of our duplicate pattern dollars of 1879.

The exchange is fair and desirable. I would recommend it.

R.A. McClure
Curator.

Hon. Daniel M. Fox
Superintendent.

Appd. D.M.F. Supt.